

LIBRARY DIRECTOR REPORT TO CLINTON COMMUNITY LIBRARY BOARD OF TRUSTEES
November 2022

Funding/Fundraising

- The Annual Appeal card has been sent to the printer's. I will have an opportunity to view a proof of the mailing early this week before the entire job is run.
- The Election Day Raffle was a big success! We raised over $1,200 for the library. I will be mailing out thank you letters to all the businesses who so generously donated.

Facilities

- No updates

Friends Group

- Next meeting: 11/28 via Zoom. Trustees are welcome to attend. Agenda will focus on Election Day Raffle wrap-up.

Staff/HR

- No updates

Technology

- No updates.

Programming

- CCL will again participate in the Clinton Tree Lighting, which will be happening on Friday, December 2nd at 4:30 PM. We will provide refreshments and help promote this fun and festive community event.
- CCL and the Clinton Historical Society will co-present a program on December 16th about the Germond Family Murders in Standfordville. Dr. Vincent Cookingham will give the talk.

Trustee Resources & News from MHLS

- Stay tuned for information on professional development and training opportunities in the new year!

Director's Notes

- Please note that I will be out of the library on Tuesday, Nov. 22nd and Friday December 16th. I will also be away on vacation the week of December 26th with limited access to email.

Respectfully submitted by Carol Bancroft, November 14, 2022
